STUDENT LIFE

LHS abounds with many activities, all of which form a vital part in making the patterns of student life. Whether it is the Spirit Assembly, a pep rally, or a football game, all compose the SILENCE OF PARTICIPATION.

HENRY McGUIRE

"FREAKS" Promote Friendliness

The week of September 8-12 is set aside for FREAK Week, stressing Friendly Relations Encouraged and Kept. Activities during this time are geared to promote school spirit and club participation.

FREAK bulletin boards, spirit ribbons, and class signs contribute to the friendly atmosphere in the halls of Lawton High.

To encourage friendly relations, this year's Student Council sponsored a "Make Friends with Kool-Aid" party Wednesday after school. Faculty members could attend the breakfast held Thursday morning.

Other activities of the week included the Spirit Assembly, a pep rally, and the LHS-Altus football game in which the Wolverines proved victorious.

The FREAK Dance held Saturday night brought FREAK Week to a friendly climax.

FREAKS of the Week Richard Skelton and Margo Lindstrom make friends with Huey by giving him an affectionate pat on the nose.

LHS Celebrates 70 Years of Tradition

Themes for the eventful week of Homecoming '70 were "Age of Aquarius" and "Seventy Years of Tradition". Both played key roles in the success of this exciting week.

"Age of Aquarius" was introduced as the theme of the assembly when six radiant queen candidates were presented to the student body under their respective astrological signs.

"Seventy Years of Tradition" was displayed in red and white floats at the game with John Marshall. Red balloons inscribed "Wolverines Forever" were distributed to spirited alumni.

As spectators viewed halftime ceremonies with warm hearts, Mona Rigby was crowned Homecoming Queen.

Seniors Win Penny Drive

The portrayal of hillbilly life was observed by Lawton High students during the week of Sadie Hawkins. On Friday students dressed up as their favorite dogpatch characters. On Monday students voted for their respective class Daisy Maes and L'il Abners during their lunch periods. Representatives included Patty Gilbert and Jaime Milendez for the Sophomore class, Lorry Severtson and Richard Skelton for the Junior class, and Nancy Duke and Clark Lynn for the Senior class.

A penny drive was held throughout the week to determine the student body Daisy Mae and L'il Abner. Winning the drive was the Senior class which collected one hundred and forty-four dollars.

Announcements and posters advertising the Friday night dance which climaxed "Dogpatch Days". Contests held at the dance included the boy with the hairiest legs, the girl with the biggest biceps, the student with the most freckles, and the person with the longest tongue.

RIGHT: As the scoreboard at Burch Stadium proclaimed a 48 to 8 victory for the LHS Wolverines over the EHS Eagles, several thousand Wolverine fans could be heard chanting "Wolverines did it again" as they left the stadium.

Activities of "Red and White Week" Unite Wolverines

"Red and White Week," the week of the annual LHS-EHS bedlam series, got off to an explosive start on November 16. LHS students could be heard chanting "Ring that bell, Big L" as they walked through the halls.

Enthusiastic students attended numerous activities held to instill spirit for the key game on Friday. A weiner roast, eagle breakfast, and eagle fry were among the highlights of this festive week. Decorations and broadcasts enlightened students of the clash on Friday evening.

On the night of November 20, "feathers did fly over Lawton High" as the Wolverines climaxed the week by tarring the Eagles, 48-8.

Stage Setting Creates Atmosphere for "Celebration"

The Lawton High School Speech Department opened its 1970-71 theatrical season with the presentation of "Celebration", directed and staged by Miss Susan Pierce.

The play, a farce written by Nat Perrin, centered around the members of the Martin family, who uncovered a human skeleton in their back yard. The events following this discovery kept the audience laughing.

Many students worked long hours in constructing the set, sewing costumes, designing posters, and working with make-up. The combined efforts of the director, actors and actresses, and production crew helped make "Celebration" a success.

Popular Love Story Brought to Life

For its second production of the year, the Speech Department brought to life Shakespeare's famed "Romeo and Juliet". This was the first major Shakespearean production that the Speech Department has ever undertaken.

"Although 'Romeo and Juliet' is an age-old tragedy, students today have no trouble identifying with the characters," said Mrs. Howard, director. "Modern teen-agers have virtually the same problems that Romeo and Juliet had."

RIGHT: Two former officers of the British Armed Forces demonstrate their fencing ability during one of many enlightening lyceums.

he theme of the 1970 Homecoming Assembly was "The Age of quarius". Decorations for this dazzling assembly in which the six lovely girls contending for Homecoming Queen were presented to the student body included an astrological sun and signs in bright colors.

Assemblies Provide Entertainment and Education

Throughout the year at Lawton High School, a variety of school assemblies provide entertainment and educational opportunities to the student body. These assemblies are made possible through the efforts of activities director, Mrs. Gwen Cox, and assemblies director, Phil Million.

Plays, class assemblies, lyceums, pep rallies, and special assemblies round out the wide scope of carefully-planned programs. Much research and rehearsal is invested in each assembly to create a program that will be beneficial to each student.

Having assemblies is a unique privilege which is enjoyed by few schools other than Lawton High.

The LHS student body was honored with the presence of members from the 1963 state football championship team and Coach Bodenhamer.

RIGHT: As Snoopy (Jennifer Barnes) prances, Juniorella (Jan Hankins) and Seniorella (Judy McCune) escort Prince Huey (Tom Emberton) to the dance. BELOW: After being mobbed by lovestruck boys, several sophomore girls plead with Cupid to change them back to normal.

Making their debut on the LHS stage, the underclassmen presented a spectroscopic prgoram of "happiness". The assembly centered around the Peanuts comic strip with various scenes portraying different episodes of happiness in life.

Opening the assembly were Charlie Brown, Lucy, and Snoopy, who established the action. Chipmunks, whistlers, and ballerinas complimented the comedy in the assembly. A talent portion was also included. Highlighting the humorous program was a "Sophorella" fairy tale skit.

The assembly ended on a happy note with the entire cast singing a new version of "Happiness".

Liz Jung strikes Robert Newman on the head with a bag of jelly beans for making malicious advances toward her at a local park.

BELOW: Smiling smugly are Nancy Antonelli and Lorry Severtson who portray two children tap dancing to a simple, old-fashioned tune.

ABOVE: In a skit prior to the finale, the cast of the Junior Assembly present a skit depicting the extracurricular activities of the faculty during a few moments in the teachers' lounge. Students portrayed various instructors by emphasizing their habits.

"All Eyes are on You" Sets Theme for Junior Assembly

Setting the pace for the 1971 Junior Class Assembly was the versatile theme, "All Eyes are on You". Numerous talent presentations supplemented with entertaining skits contributed to the imaginative production.

The assembly dealt with matters relevant to today's world. Scenes depicting women's liberation, pollution, campus unrest in a nursery school, teen-age love, fashion, and night club life were several of the facets which comprised the program.

Songs, dances, and comedy routines helped to round out the juniors' presentation. The program was brought to a close with the entire cast singing "Hey Look Us Over".

The Senior Class Contributes To Americanism

A take-off on the colorful and eventful history of the United States was utilized as the theme for the 1971 Senior Class Assembly. A well written script, adequate sets, and timely costumes all contributed immensely to the authenticity of this senior class production.

"Father Time" narrated skits that appeared in chronological order. Opening the assembly was a spectacular peacock adorned with colors.

Humorous and serious skits depicted various eras and important incidents in our picturesque past. Scenes ranging from Columbus' discovery of America to a soldier's death comprised the Seniors' success.

RIGHT: After discovering America, Columbus (Leland Powell) waves "hello" to the Indian squaws as Matt Richard looks on in astonishment and Henry McGuire points to the teepees.

LEFT: Singing the song "Let It Be" during a segment of the Civil War scene are Beverly Moore and Myrna Ramon, accompanied by Patsy Patterson on the piano. BELOW: Seniors involved in the Boston Tea Party skit stage a protest march to ban the taxes on imported tea shipments.

LHS Administration Forms Backbone of School Function

The principals, counselors, and secretaries play a vital part in the life of Lawton High.

The computer system acquired last year aids these people in their roles as the backbone of LHS activity. With the computers assuming much of the paper work and two new counselors joining the staff, counselors have more time to work with students in determining selections of colleges and deciding upon future vocations.

Classroom Participation Renders Experience

Upholstery, mechanical drawing, and shop are the three subjects taught in the Industrial Arts Department. Through classroom participation, students obtain experience in working with materials, woods, and blueprints.

Mrs. Pitchford, head of the Art Department, says, "You ought to enjoy art. It should be pleasurable." Art students this year are enjoying art by making things that are useful. They relate art to the community and everyday life. Some of their projects are designing registration boxes and posters.

Mr. Jeff Swindle

Business Students Pre-Punch Report Cards

The business department has undertaken a new project with the new equipment purchased last year. Two vocational business students pre-punch all grade cards before they are sent to the computer in Oklahoma City.

September is recognized as Business Career Month. Special emphasis is placed on the business department during this time.

Students are able to get adequate training for the business world by enrolling in one or more of the twelve business courses.

Mr. Greear helps Trish Houser prepare for her job of pre-punching the grade cards.

Perceptoscope Aids Students

A new teaching aid is being used in the English department. The perceptoscope, a reading machine, is designed to aid the student with reading problems. It is used in all the English classes either to help slow readers or to increase the speed and comprehension of the more advanced student.

The magazine Collage is a new publication of Lawton High School. It is published twice yearly, in the fall and in the spring. This anthology gives students a chance to publish their poems and short stories.

Modern Approach Stresses the Spoken Language

Lawton High School's language department offers courses in French, Spanish, and German. Because Latin is no longer being offered, the other foreign language classes expanded. This created the need for an extra Spanish teacher. Four new teachers joined Mrs. Knight in this department.

With the help of modern equipment and books, the teachers strive to teach students the importance of speaking and understanding a foreign language. Studying the geography and customs of the country gives the student a better insight into the language.

Mrs. Patricia Wilkerson

Mr. Scott Simpson

Nelson Rosado, Nancy Morris, Diane Sare, Roxanne Manning, and Kelly Stephens learn French songs accompanied by Miss Grafa.

Each year the Spanish Department sponsors an open house at which students and teachers display their souvenirs. Mrs. Wilkerson examines a scarf while Mr. Simpson models a Mexican sombrero.

Students who work in the materials center learn how to operate all of the machines used there. Billy Byers reproduces a page on the Xerox machine for Pat Holifield as she looks on.

Instructional Media Supports Curriculum

The library, materials center, and study hall have become more unified in their efforts this year. About five hundred new books have been added to our library. These were all on the shelves before the end of the first nine weeks. Material found in a book in the library can be visually reproduced in the materials center. The aim of the library and materials center is to select and have available to teachers and students the best possible material to meet the instructional needs. With this as their objective, the people who work in these areas strive to support our curriculum.

Department Organizes New Club

Five mathematics courses are offered at LHS. The basic courses, algebra I and geometry, are chosen by sophomores. Juniors study advanced algebra. Industrious seniors take math IV and V.

A math club has been organized this year. The purpose of the club is to stimulate an interest in mathematics. Lectures and demonstrations are provided to make math fun.

The month of May is set aside for those interested in careers in mathematics. During this month, there are special activities for students interested in this field.

Vocal Music Department Presents Candlelight Service

On December 15 the Vocal Music Department held its first annual Christmas candlelight service. This ceremony was opened to the public. Each May the department holds its Spring Concert, which is a culmination of the year's work. Throughout the year students participate in district and state contests.

"The Big Red Band from Wolverine Land" has an even one hundred members. The band performs for all home games and some out of town ones. It also participates in local parades and district marching contests. This year the band ranked superior in the Altus marching contest for the third consecutive year.

Speech Productions Entertain Students

The Speech Department is divided into four categories. Speech I students study the fundamentals of speech. Drama students learn theory, play production, and stage production. The interpretation classes learn to interpret the works of writers. The forensic division deals with debate and extemporaneous speaking.

This year the department is producing two plays for high school students, as well as one for grade school students. The selections include "Celebration" and "Romeo and Juliet," and "The Magic Isle" for the grade school production.

The drama students study both eomedy and tragedy. William Shakespeare's play "Romeo and Juliet" gives them a deep understanding of human tragedy. Two students in the production. Anna Cantu and Nelson Rosado, contemplate the mask of tragedy.

Students Prove Theories With Lab Experiments

Mr. Arthur Dunham

New biology and chemistry books are being used in the science department. The different approach of the chemistry book co-ordinates the lab and theory. Using the investigative approach, the book stresses participation by the student. "The ability of the student to go into the lab and interpret his findings is very important," said Mr. Holland.

During the month of February, members of each of the four courses have an opportunity to hear area speakers and engineers in each field of science. This month is designated as Careers in Science Month.

Home Ec Classes Emphasize Home Improvement Plans

The Home Economics classes cover nine major areas. These are clothing, foods, child care and development, personal development, home nursing, plans for marriage and parenthood, careers, equipment, and housing. With a wide variety of resource materials, films, and guest speakers, the classes are able to study in detail these phases.

Other than classroom and home projects, the students do projects for the community. These include making ditty bags for servicemen and sending Christmas baskets and gifts to an underprivileged family.

Trying to make the most of their budgets, Nancy Cole and Debra Sloniker compare food prices.

Mrs. Juanita Boyce

Mrs. Margie McMahan

Interior decorating is covered in much detail by the homemaking classes. Students, co-ordinating their favorite colors and styles, learn to design and decorate a room. Karen Barnes, Rosa Christian, and Naomi Cross discuss materials they will use in planning a room.

Students Relate History to Present Problems

Careers in Social Studies are acknowledged during the month of October. Bulletin boards showing occupations relating to social studies are put up in the classrooms. One day is set aside for professional people to speak to the students.

New films on minority groups aid the nine social studies teachers in the study of current events. The students are learning to apply history to present day problems. By making history relevant to present needs, the students will better understand the problems of today.

Department Expands to Include a Third Year Program

In its third year at Lawton High, the Junior Reserved Officer Training Corps includes a course in Military Training III. The classes study weapons, marksmanship, map and terrain analysis, new developments of the Army, hygiene and first aid, and leadership, drill and exercise of command.

Besides the regular curriculum, the ROTC Department is responsible for many other activities. ROTC conducts all flag raising ceremonies at the school. It contributes to football games by escorting the drill team girls, assisting in the parking area and presenting the colors.

Vocational Classes Render Apprenticeship Training

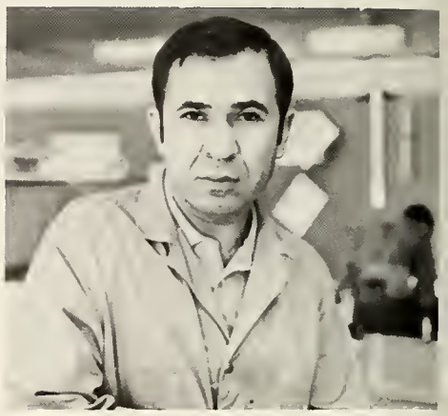
A student enrolled in the Vocational Department gains knowledge of an occupation he may later choose for himself. He is able to receive actual experience through on-the-job training.

The Graphic Arts Department includes photography, offset printing, and layout work. It prints most of the printed material for the school system.

Industrial Cooperative Training and Distributive Education students spend mornings in school and afternoons working for a business firm. DE teaches a trade, and ICT provides secretarial experience.

Agriculture students bring honors to LHS each year by winning many prizes in county and state fairs.

Boys enrolled in Auto Mechanics learn the parts of a motor and the role they play in the operation of an automobile. Electronics is a course which teaches students the operation of electronic equipment.



Mr. Karim Farajollahi

Simulators Create Freak Situations

Sixteen new films are being used with the simulators which were purchased last year for the Drivers' Ed. Department. These films cover every phase of driving. The simulators teach students the fundamentals of driving. The machines check each student to make sure that he reacts correctly to driving situations and record the student's mistakes.

After drilling on the simulators in the classroom, the students go to the specially equipped drivers' training cars. Students average two and one-half hours of simulation and four and one-half hours of driving.

P. E. Tournaments Arouse Competition Within Classes

The physical education classes have activities ranging from team sports to individual ones. Girls' sports include volleyball, archery, and badminton. Softball, basketball, and ping-pong are part of the boys' curriculum. During the year students compete in tournaments for each sport. Team sports are held between classes, and individual ones within classes. Trophies are awarded to the winners of each activity.

Mr. Byrl Hunt

Through the physical education program, students maintain healthy, active lives. Helen Fisher demonstrates her skill in volleyball as she returns the ball during an exciting game.

People Behind the Scenes Take Pride in Service to LHS

The meals which are prepared by our cooks are planned from the food services at the Board of Education. The same menu is served in all thirty-six schools throughout the Lawton system. The menu must meet a type A food requirement set by the U. S. Government. Food used in the kitchen is purchased through central buying. Some foods are donated by the U. S. Government.

"We serve about 950 meals per day," says Mrs. Cummings, Cafeteria Manager, "and hamburgers are still our best meal!"

The custodians keep the halls in immaculate condition and maintain the classrooms, cafeteria, and gym. They also keep the outside of the school beautiful.

Council Nominates Top Students

One of the many long-time traditions at Lawton High School is the monthly selection of four students who have made some contribution to the school through their scholarship, citizenship, or leadership abilities.

The students selected are nominated by members of the Student Council and then voted on by the three principals and eight counselors.

Following their selection, these Students of the Month judge club bulletin boards. They are also honored at luncheons given by the various civic clubs in Lawton.

Student Council Recognizes Dedicated Teachers

At the beginning of each month during the school year, the LHS Student Council honors one deserving teacher as Teacher of the Month. The instructors who obtain this honor display dedicated interest in their students and devote much time to extra-curricular activities.

Members of the faculty first submit nominations, and the Student Council makes the final selection. Each Teacher of the Month receives a special certificate, and his activities and interests are reviewed in the TATLER.

Students' Awards Bring Honor To LHS

Andrea Wendel

Throughout the academic school year, numerous students bring various awards and honors to LHS. Through their achievements these outstanding students round out the host of laurels in LHS lore.

These two pages are set aside for eleven students who have brought glory to LHS this year. Attending Boys' State were delegates Donnie Bain, John Banta, Mark Bodenhamer, Clark Lynn, and Henry McGuire. Mona Rigby and Marcia Barnett attended Girls' State, which correlates with Boys' State. Winning a national award in the Albert W. Hawkes Patriotic Essay Contest was Andrea Wendell. Locally, Kelly Stephens, Patty Hawkins, and Genie Corwin brought home the first three places in the Voice of Democracy contest. Honored with the DAR award was Mona Rigby.

Sixty-One Students Maintain Perfect Semester Averages

Each year many students at Lawton High prove their high scholastic abilities by being recognized as honor students. These students are genuinely interested in academics and study diligently each nine-weeks in anticipation of their report cards.

Those who maintain a 3.2 average are listed on the school honor roll. Students earning a perfect four-point average are recognized on the Principal's Honor Roll. Both honor rolls are published in the LAWTON CONSTITUTION after each nine-week period.

The students on these two pages received straight A's throughout the first semester and were listed on the semester Principal's Honor Roll.

Many students find assignments easier to do when typed. As Sonja Thompson completes her homework, Myra Gardner checks it for mistakes.

Taking a break from their studies to talk with Brenda Bennight are sophomores Robby Brunner and Hank Ecroyd. Each of these four-point students have found that maintaining his grades often takes hours of study and research either at home or in the school library.

Seniors Honor Sixteen Students in Election to Who's Who

Beverly Moore

Leah Hunt

In December of each school year, the senior class elects sixteen senior students for Who's Who. Those selected are chosen on the basis of their leadership qualities which they have displayed throughout each of their years as Wolverines.

Each student who was selected this year has proven his outstanding abilities through his contribution to school activities. A few of the honorees' many activities are participation in football, student council, high steppers, and wolverettes. No student offers more to a school than one who, as each of these has done, encourages school spirit by enthusiastically supporting his school.

Lore Queen Reigns over Seventy Years of Tradition

Selecting one girl to serve as an all-school queen is an old tradition at Lawton High School. For the past decade the girl receiving this honor has been given the title of Lore Queen. Next to the Hugh Bish award, Lore Queen is designated as being the highest honor which a girl at LHS can attain. This stands true because the Lore Queen reigns over all of Lawton High, not merely a part of it. The girl selected for this honor actually reigns over years of wolverine lore.

Lawton High's Lore Queen is one who displays the classical ideals of a young woman. Unmatched beauty, refined grace, and a charming personality are only three of the qualities which she possesses. These attributes are constantly displayed and utilized in the queen's dedication to her school.

Members of the senior class first nominate girls who they feel are worthy of this high honor. Ten girls receiving the most nominations are presented to the student body during an assembly in December. The power of selection is then delegated to the entire student body.

After compiling all ballots, only one girl receives this honor, while the three who follow closely in their total number of votes reign as her attendants.

The outcome of the election is not known by the student body until May, when the new yearbooks arrive. An assembly is then held to present the new Lore Queen and her three attendants to the student body. Two pages in each edition of the Wolverine Lore are dedicated to each year's Lore Queen.

This year's reigning queen, Miss Marcia Barnett, is no exception to Lawton High's long tradition of having a queen who is most deserving of this high honor. Serving as her attendants are Mary Spradlin, Beverly Moore, and Nancy Duke.

Chosen for her warm personality and ever present smile, Miss Mona Rigby reigns as the 1970 Homecoming Queen of Lawton High School. As a queen at Lawton High, Mona does not only reign over a school, but she also reigns over seventy years of tradition--a tradition of loyalty, contribution, and love for LHS. During each of Mona's three year's at Lawton High, she has upheld these traditions. Through this willingness to participate in activities beneficial to her school, Mona has truly earned the honor of 1970 Homecoming Queen of Lawton High School.

Student Council sponsors four all-school dances each year. This year the FREAK Dance replaced the Howdy Dance to encourage friendly relations among all students. Student Council members decorated for the dance using cartoon chracters from the "Peanuts" series.

Student Council Coordinates All-School Activities

Characterized as the "medium" between the administration and the student body, the Lawton High Student Council forms the nucleus of all student life.

Comprised of student body officers, class officers, and club presidents, the Student Council numbers fifty-eight. Meeting weekly, the Student Council determines and establishes student activities and functions that take place throughout the year.

Sportsmanship, evaluation, publicity, and social committees aid in forming more harmonious relationships at LHS. Student Council members strive diligently to improve all facets of life at Lawton High.

John Banta and Clark Lynn display spirit ribbons, bumper stickers, victory bells, and T-shirts to Donna Wilcox and Charles Walker.

Future Farmers of America Attend Livestock Shows

Future Farmers of America, the national organization for students of vocational agriculture, develops agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. To establish these qualities, members attend and participate in various events throughout the year. Such events include the District and County Fairs held in Lawton during March and September, the Oklahoma State Fair, the Tulsa State Fair, the Oklahoma State FFA convention held in Stillwater, and the national FFA convention held in Kansas City, Missouri.

Other activities of FFA include selling concessions at home basketball games, attending a spring picnic, and participating in the Intra-City Chapter of FFA.

Distributive Education Members Gain On-the-Job Training

The Distributive Education Clubs of America are designed to develop future leaders in careers of marketing and distribution. On-the-job training prepares students for immediate employment or further training for their vocations.

This year the Lawton High Chapter of DECA participated in the Jaycee Christmas parade, Fire Prevention Week, and Sandy's Pass, Dribble, and Shoot Contest. For fund-raising projects, members sold comb sets and candy.

Each fall, the officers of DECA attend the District Officers' Conference. This year's meeting was held in Anadarko, Oklahoma.

Debbie Miller, Darla Roberson, Mayor Wayne Gilley, and Laurcresha Jones honor the 25th anniversary of DECA at the Lawton City Hall.

FBLA Educates Students Toward Business Careers

Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization designed to aid students who are interested in pursuing business as a future occupation. At LHS, classes, correlating with the club's projects, establish a background for business students.

The club attends the State Convention in March, entering members in competition with other students in different business areas.

Collecting coke bottles for a money-making project, Vickie Alldredge and Donna Benson receive two cartons from a friendly donator.

CAC Sets Guidelines for LHS-EHS Competition

Seven members and two alternates from each of the three Lawton high schools are selected by their principals to serve on the City Activities Committee. The three offices, president, vice-president, and secretary, are alternated annually among the schools, each school electing one officer. The committee meets once a month, rotating the sites of the meetings among the member schools.

The purpose of the CAC is to promote harmonious relations and to provide mature ideals of citizenship through unified efforts encouraging honor, sportsmanship, and scholarship among the senior high schools in our city.

LHS CAC representatives Frank Gonzales, Leah Hunt, John Banta, Nancy Lee, Mona Rigby, Jim Banta, and Judy Hamra leave school after attending a City Activities Committee meeting.

Inspecting the engine of a truck for possible trouble points are students Ronnie Williams, Clifford Ginter and Gary Airington.

Members Learn Mechanical Trade in Classroom

A common interest helps unite the Future Mechanics of America at LHS. To promote better understanding between class and industry, the club members sponsor various projects that they undertake during the year. These activities take them to a needy family's home with a Thanksgiving basket and the Tipton Orphan's Home during the Christmas holidays. Mr. Boswell, the club sponsor, also sponsors a hamburger fry at his home for the club members.

During the class time, the members train in order to enter the field of mechanics at an advanced apprenticeship.

Commonly referred to as "The Big Red Band from Wolverine Land", the band adds color and excitement so necessary in football games.

In order to reach the peak of perfection, the band rehearses early before school every morning during football season and before competitions. The band's half-time shows and trophies brought back from contests are evidence of this practice and excellence.

Earning money to go on trips and to buy equipment, the band sponsors a bean dinner and sells note cards.

The band also marches in downtown parades and performs at pep rallies during the year.

Band Receives Top Rating in Altus Marching Contest

Seated in concert fashion, the LHS band awaits the beginning of the annual "pops" concert. This year, the concert featured highlights from "Purlie" and the Burt Bacharach hit "Close To You".

Drum major and twirlers for the 1970-71 "Pride of Lawton" band are Maria Holman, Katy Reynolds, Craig Williams, Myra Gardner, Janis Buttram, Marianna Fremin, head-twirler Arlene Love, Elaine Yeats, and Leslie Myers.

Future Homemakers Learn Fashion Trends

Beginning with a fashion show held in the fall, the members of Future Homemakers of America maintain a full year of activities. A beneficial part of FHA, programs stress the improved standards for home and family living. One program includes a marriage council formed to discuss the fundamentals of marriage. Guest speakers also present talks on this subject.

During December the members dress and remake dolls which are given to underprivileged children. The girls also donate gifts to orphans.

Other activities of the Future Homemakers of America include the presentation of programs to fifth and sixth grade groups of the local 4-H Club.

French Club Members Undertake Full Year of Activities

An organization for students taking French, French Club presents a better understanding of the language, customs, and culture of France.

Numerous events are slated periodically throughout the year to entertain approximately sixty French clubbers. Among these activities are a bingo party, culture panel, progressive dinner, and Christmas caroling party.

Highlighting the years activities is the annual Christmas banquet which is held at the Sirloin Stockade. At this festive occasion gifts are exchanged in an informal atmosphere and the French Club queen is crowned.

ABOVE: Members of French club enjoy the annual Christmas banquet held at the Sirloin Stockade where the club queen, Leah Hunt, was honored. BELOW: A bingo party at the first of the year proved to be a time of entertainment for these French clubbers.

Interact Members Sell "Number One" Bumper Stickers

Interact, sponsored by the Lawton Rotary Club, provides an opportunity for young men to work together in promoting understanding among the members and responsibility to school and home.

Each year the members paint addresses on curbs of city residents. The club also sponsors hayrides. Plastic Christmas candles and candy canes are sold in November. This year the members are selling bumper stickers proclaiming "LHS No. 1", as the football team takes over the first place rating in all state polls.

As a contribution to the school, the members paint the activities office at the beginning of the school year.

With evidence that LHS was state bound, Interact members Gary Watkins, Garry Stevenson, Martin McDowell, and Buz Sumrall started early selling their bumper stickers in the main halls.

Key Clubbers Sell Flags; Promote Patriotism

The purpose of Key Club is to create better relationships between the school and the community. This organization is sponsored by the Downtown Kiwanis Club.

Each year Key Clubbers paint the baseball bleachers and the lines in the parking lot. They also help with the UNICEF fund and the Salvation Army clothing drives. This year, members sold American flags to promote patriotism.

In the spring, members having the highest number of points attend the district Key Club convention.

Members of Key Club prepare to display their new flags. The boys sold American flags as this year's major money-making project.

Energetic OIO Members Baby-Sit During State Elections

The Oklahomans for Indian Opportunities is an organization promoting leadership qualities and educational opportunities for Indian young people. This organization also encourages the spread of information concerning Indian contributions to the United States.

One of the newer clubs at Lawton High, OIO offers a variety of activities in which its members may participate. This year, members observed Indian Achievement Week during the week of October 12-17. To encourage a larger turn-out for the state elections in November, OIO students baby-sat for children while their parents went to the polls.

OIO members perform the sacred Indian death ritual in their native dress for the Club Assembly.

A member of Future Teachers of America, Earl Huggins persuades Diane Banks to buy some stationery that the club members are selling. They also sell Christmas cards and hold bake sales to raise money for a three day trip to a conference held in Stillwater.

Future Teachers Stress Careers in Education

For the student who desires a teaching career, the Future Teachers of America club offers an opportunity to become a "teacher for a day". For one day each year, members teach a class in one of the Lawton schools. This gives the future teacher a chance to discipline and teach a group of young students.

Future Teachers have one day and one night meeting each month. Guest speakers often present programs. To raise money, bake sales are held and members sell such things as Christmas cards and stationery.

Members attend two conferences each year held at the university campuses in Norman and Stillwater.

Hi-Y Members Learn Fundamentals of Government

The purpose of Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the home, school, and community.

Meeting twice monthly, members prepare bills to present at Pre-Legislature and Legislature youth conferences. Members must first attend Youth and Government meetings at the YMCA to learn how the judicial and legislative branches of our own government are run. They also learn how to present and debate bills.

Each October new members are initiated into the organization during a ceremony held at Centenary Methodist Church. This induction is held jointly with all Tri-Hi-Y members.

Each year Hi-Y members prepare bills to take to Legislature at the State Capitol in Oklahoma City. Nathan Ellis defines the various parts of a bill at a Hi-Y meeting.

Working in the main office during fifth hour are office club members Rosa Christian and Sherry Zumwalt. Looking up students' schedules is only one of the duties of working in the office.

COLUMN ONE: Caye Bost, Rosa Christian, Judy Hamra, Deborah Leeper. COLUMN 2: Karen Ross, June Russell, Anita Sampson, Phyllis Stevenson. COLUMN 3: John Watkins, Sharon Willis.

Office Workers Assist Counselors and Secretaries

Primarily a school service organization, Office Club is composed of students who aid the secretaries and counselors with their daily chores. During the day these assistants collect attendance slips, file cards, and run various other errands. They also keep the office bulletin boards filled with helpful notices.

Members devote one hour of their school day to assist in the materials center, attendance office, principal's office, or one of the counselor's offices. Even though the workers receive no academic credit for their work, they are a vital part in the function of LHS.

Helping to file scholarship information available to any interested students are counselor aides Barbara Baker and Pam Pokorny.

Hard-Working Athletes Earn Honor of Wearing Big "L"

The "L" Club is an honorary organization composed of students and former students of Lawton High School who have won letters in athletic competition.

By actively participating in football, basketball, baseball, track, or tennis, a student may earn a letter. The school then presents the letterman with a letter jacket.

Each member of "L" Club pledges to promote interest in the organization, to foster good sportsmanship, and to remember the importance of physical fitness, mental alertness, and moral integrity.

This year's initiation for new "L" Club members was held in January.

Seniors Mike and Fred Vasquez, both three-year football lettermen sweep the gym floor during half-time of a Wolverine basketball game.

Members of Spanish Club Observe "Pan-American Week"

Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. Wilkerson and Mr. Simpson, is for students interested in learning more about Spanish culture.

Each year the club assists Julio Camba with the preparations for the annual Fiesta Mexicana. Students come from all over the state to attend the festivities. Held each year in March, the Fiesta features a workshop, banquet, queen coronation, dance, and special program.

This year's activities of Spanish Club included organizing the Spanish Carnival in October, observing "Pan-American Week", and preparing Thanksgiving and Christmas food baskets for needy families.

1970 Wolverine Lore Receives All American Rating

Chosen in March by their sponsor, Mr. Karim Farajollahi, the 1971 staff strives to meet the goals set by last year's staff.

The 1970 Lore received an "All American" rating from the National Scholastic Press Association and the "Medalist Award" from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. These awards are the highest given by these two associations in yearbook critiques. This is the first year in the history of the Lore to receive these awards.

Yearbooks are put into classifications based upon enrollment of school and then judged.

The Lore is divided into eight sections, each having an editor who is responsible for his section's deadline, pictures, and copy. To oversee the general production and sales of the yearbook is the job of the editor-in-chief, who is aided by the managing editor. Other staff members include the copy editor, photographers, sponsors, and typesetters.

A type setting machine is a new addition to the yearbook department. With the use of this machine the staff can now set type for all copy used in the Lore. The expenses saved have been used to improve the final product, the Wolverine Lore.

TATLER Celebrates Golden Anniversary of Publication

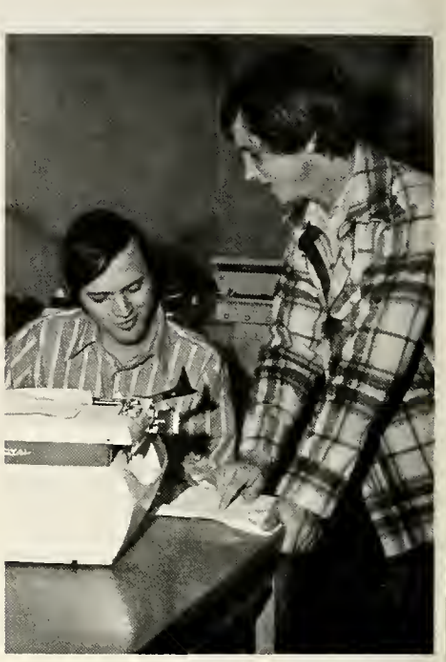
Celebrating its golden anniversary of publication, the TATLER strives to keep students well-informed of the activities of Lawton High. Published once each month, this newspaper has long been known to "tell all school news".

This year the staff welcomed a new sponsor, Mrs. Janet Cox. Also new is the publisher of the newspaper. The papers are now printed by the APACHE NEWS in Apache, Oklahoma.

The TATLER is a member of the Oklahoma Interscholastic Press. Each year the staff submits three consecutive issues of the paper to be critiqued by this association.

The staff consists of twenty-five journalism students who work one hour each day on upcoming issues.

Sponsor, Mrs. Janet Cox, and editor, Pat Paquin, discuss the next deadline for the Tatler.



Editing a story for the Tatler are assistant editors Phil Marshall and Robbie Bonifield.

Reporters Debbie Bishop, Larry Hall, Susan Porter, exchange editor Jim Smith and reporter Richard Beeson put ideas together for future news articles in the Tatler, the LHS newspaper. Many of the staff members write articles voicing their opinions on school issues.

Tri-Hi-Y Assists Community Through Service Projects

Tri-Hi-Y is the only community service club for girls at Lawton High. Members sponsor projects such as cleaning the trophy cases, collecting for UNICEF, and providing Christmas gifts for underprivileged children. To finance social activities, members also participate in many money-making projects.

A branch of Tri-Hi-Y, Youth and Government Club, is sponsored by the YMCA. Members attend Pre-Legislature in Norman and Legislature in Oklahoma City to participate in a mock government system.

German Club Sponsors Christmas Party for Children

The Lawton High German Club, centering its service around the holiday festivities, distributes German food baskets to needy families in the fall. Then at Christmas time, it sponsors a German party for some underprivileged children and sing German carols to elderly people at a convalescent home. A German holiday is also celebrated with a Fasching Carnival, a German costume ball.

To finance these activities, the members have several money-making projects, which includes the selling of German chocolate Santa Clauses.

German Club members enjoy themselves at a coke party, their first social event of the year.

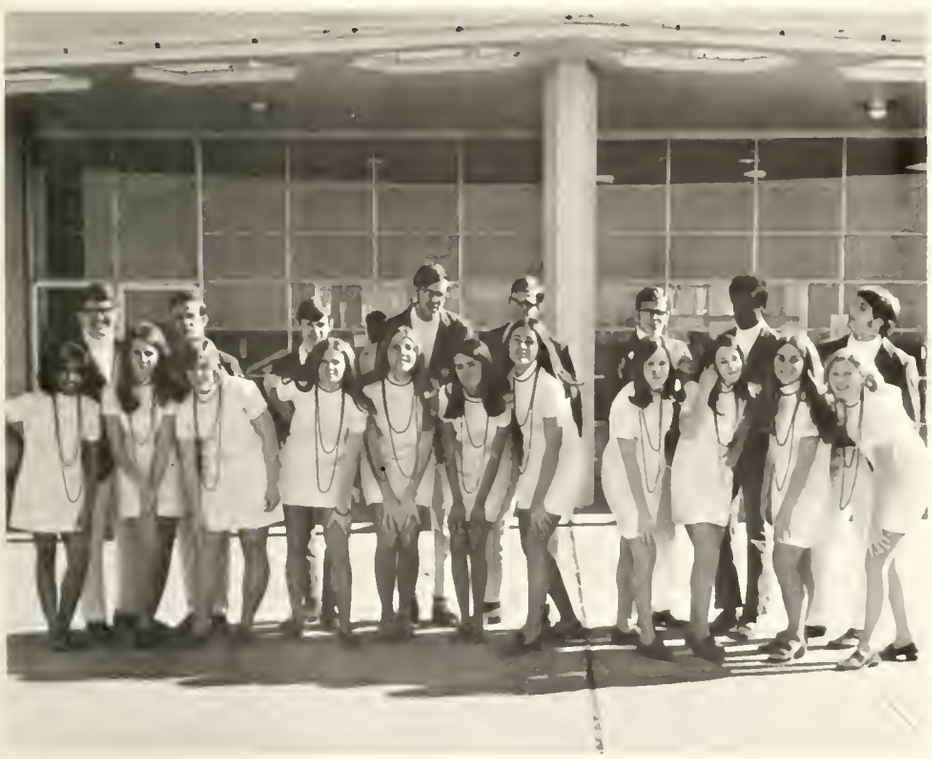
Chorus Performs With Lawton Philharmonic Orchestra



Continuing in the championship tradition of Lawton High, the Mixed Chorus brought many and varied honors to LHS this year. The chorus performed with the Lawton Philharmonic Orchestra on February 6, a first for a high school group in the orchestra's history.

The Mixed Chorus delights many an audience with its singing, ranging from school groups to civic organizations. It provided the background for the Homecoming, Club, and Christmas assemblies.

Under the direction of Mrs. Sarah Bridges, the Mixed Chorus proves to be an outstanding part of Lawton High School.

The Mixed Ensemble, composed of members of Mixed Chorus, performs for various school clubs and civic organizations throughout the year.

Glee Club Trains Girls as Future Mixed Chorus Members

A beginning course for members of the mixed chorus, the Girls' Glee Club teaches its members the basic fundamentals of music. The girls meet during the second and fifth hours, practicing hard to perfect their selections.

Although they are not the main performing group, they compete in the district contest held at Cameron College in March. The club also performs at the annual Spring Concert. A girl's ensemble and trio are formed from the Girl's Glee Club.

NFL Members Broadcast City School News on KSWO

National Forensic League is an honorary organization for students interested in debate and interpretation. Membership is recorded on each student's permanent record. To be accepted as a member, each student must obtain at least 25 points. Points are earned by speaking in public to an audience and participating in tournaments.

NFL members broadcast city school news every day on a local radio station. As their main social event, members help sponsor a banquet.

Charles Cantrell, Janice Joyner, Mike Waters, and Linda Monroe compile research material in preparation for a debate to be presented in class.

MAC Members Deliver Magazines to Reynolds Hospital

Being interested in the field of medicine prompts many LHS students to join Medical Arts Club. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Vinnie Mae Howell, the members are able to work as Candy Stripers, Blue Teens, or other volunteers in local hospitals and convalescent homes.

A project for the entire club is delivering magazines which are used in the hospital waiting rooms.

The members gain practical knowledge in the field they may one day choose to enter.

Thespian Society Becomes International Organization

The purpose of the International Thespian Society is to encourage the advancement and improvement of theater arts in secondary schools. A student may become a member of Lawton High's chapter of Thespians by earning 15 Thespian points. These points may be obtained by participating in assemblies and play productions.

With the aid of NFL members, Thespians publish the "Wolverine Student Directory". Other activities include a joint Christmas party with MacArthur and Eisenhower High members.

Highlighting the year's events is the annual banquet at which the Opal Acting Awards are presented and new members are initiated.

NHS Officers Attend State Convention in Stillwater

To be eligible for membership in the National Honor Society, a student must maintain a 3.5 grade point average and submit a recommendation signed by four teachers or counselors.

The Lawton High chapter of NHS undertakes many projects during the school year. Helping with the Tipton Home project, preparing a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family, and maintaining the LHS bookstore are several activities that keep members busy.

This year students sold "Home of Champs" pennants for a money-making project. In December the NHS officers attended the National Honor Society state convention held at Oklahoma State University.

Library Club Attends Fall OSLA Meeting Held at OU

After learning the basics of running the library, the members of Library Club work during the day helping students find needed information and checking out the books they want. Members also keep the book and magazine shelves in order. At different times of the year, members decorate the library bulletin boards with various reminders of upcoming holidays and games.

Last fall, members attended a meeting held at OU of the Oklahoma Student Librarian Association.

Math Club Returns Under New Sponsorship

Revived at Lawton High this year, the Math Club promotes a better understanding of mathematics to students interested in this field. Under the new sponsorship of Mrs. Crane, interest has been renewed in this organization.

Guest speakers, special demonstrations, and various field trips aid members in discovering a new world of mathematical exploration. This year guest speakers included Mr. James Phillips, Cameron College Math Department Instructor, who presented a program geared to prepare students for college math. Members also took a field trip to the Cameron College Data Processing Center.

Scarlet Sabres Represent LHS at Various Drill Meets

Scarlet Sabres was organized in honor of Colonel Robert Johnson, an LHS graduate who received numerous medals for outstanding service to his country. These drill team members practice marching, weapon maneuvers, and discipline.

The team participates in various drill meets throughout the states of Texas and Oklahoma, placing third in the Cameron Drill Meet in December.

Besides competitive activities, the club escorts the High Steppers on all out-of-town trips and home games. Distinguished visitors to Lawton High are also escorted by members of Scarlet Sabres.

Field Trip to State Fair Highlights P & B Year

Appreciating and developing their skills in art, the members of Palette and Brush devote many hours to worthwhile projects. One of the major projects is entering various art shows for competition. The members also make several field trips to art exhibits at community buildings and nearby colleges.

The members construct posters to advertise national safety slogans and community interests. They also enjoy making and selling ceramics and plastic flowers for money needed to cover necessary expenses.

The week of February 8-12 was Negro History Week. During this week students prepared reports for classes and put up several bulletin boards about Negro history. Jeffrey Watkins and Cheryl Wilcox design posters while Ava Leday cuts out the letters for the displays.

Afro-Americans Promote Understanding of Negro Culture

Afro-Americans, who take pride in the roles which they fill in today's society, have an eventful American past. Last year, the Negro students at Lawton High established the Afro-American Club to promote a better understanding and knowledge of the Negro culture and problems.

Activities planned throughout the year are numerous and worthwhile. This year the club sponsored a cultural panel, food baskets, and a "jam session", as well as other activities to keep members active in their newly-formed organization.

Vo. Ed. Classes Sponsor Christmas Party at Tipton

Growing in character, citizenship, and leadership, Vocational Industrial Clubs of America develop the skills of today's students for tomorrow's jobs in electronics, photography, graphic arts, auto mechanics, and ICT.

VICA members acquire a respect for the dignity of work and learn the importance of high standards in trade ethics, workmanship, scholarship, safety, and public relations.

These students are kept busy by projects such as a Christmas party for the children at the Tipton's home and the distribution of food baskets for needy families at Thanksgiving.

Initiation Held in Candlelight

A genuine interest in the Spanish language and a desire to continue the study of the language prompts some students to increase their knowledge of this tongue. These students belong to Julio Camba. To be able to join Julio Camba, a student must maintain the average of 3.2; therefore, the number of members is limited.

Beginning with an initiation and guest speaker in the month of October, the members of Julio Camba have many activities. Some of these include a Halloween party and carnival. Their main activity of interest is the annual "Fiesta Mexicana" held in February. Spanish students from all over the state attend this festive occasion.

Pauletta Britten, Brenda Hernandez, Mary Sue Dayton, Sonja Thompson, and Paula Vanlandingham participate in the joint Spanish and Julio Camba Club Initiation Service held at the first of the year.

High Steppers Enlarge to Twice Its Original Size

Now in its fourth year of existence, the Lawton High Steppers has doubled from its original size. This has made it possible for the drill team to become an independent organization.

Representing LHS during the halftime ceremonies of the basketball and football games, the High Steppers perform various types of dance routines. The girls learn these routines at a summer session held at SMU in Texas. They perfect and alter their dances during practices held during first hour and after school.

The drill team sells magazines, candy, and hair spray to raise money for out-of-town trips, uniforms and props.

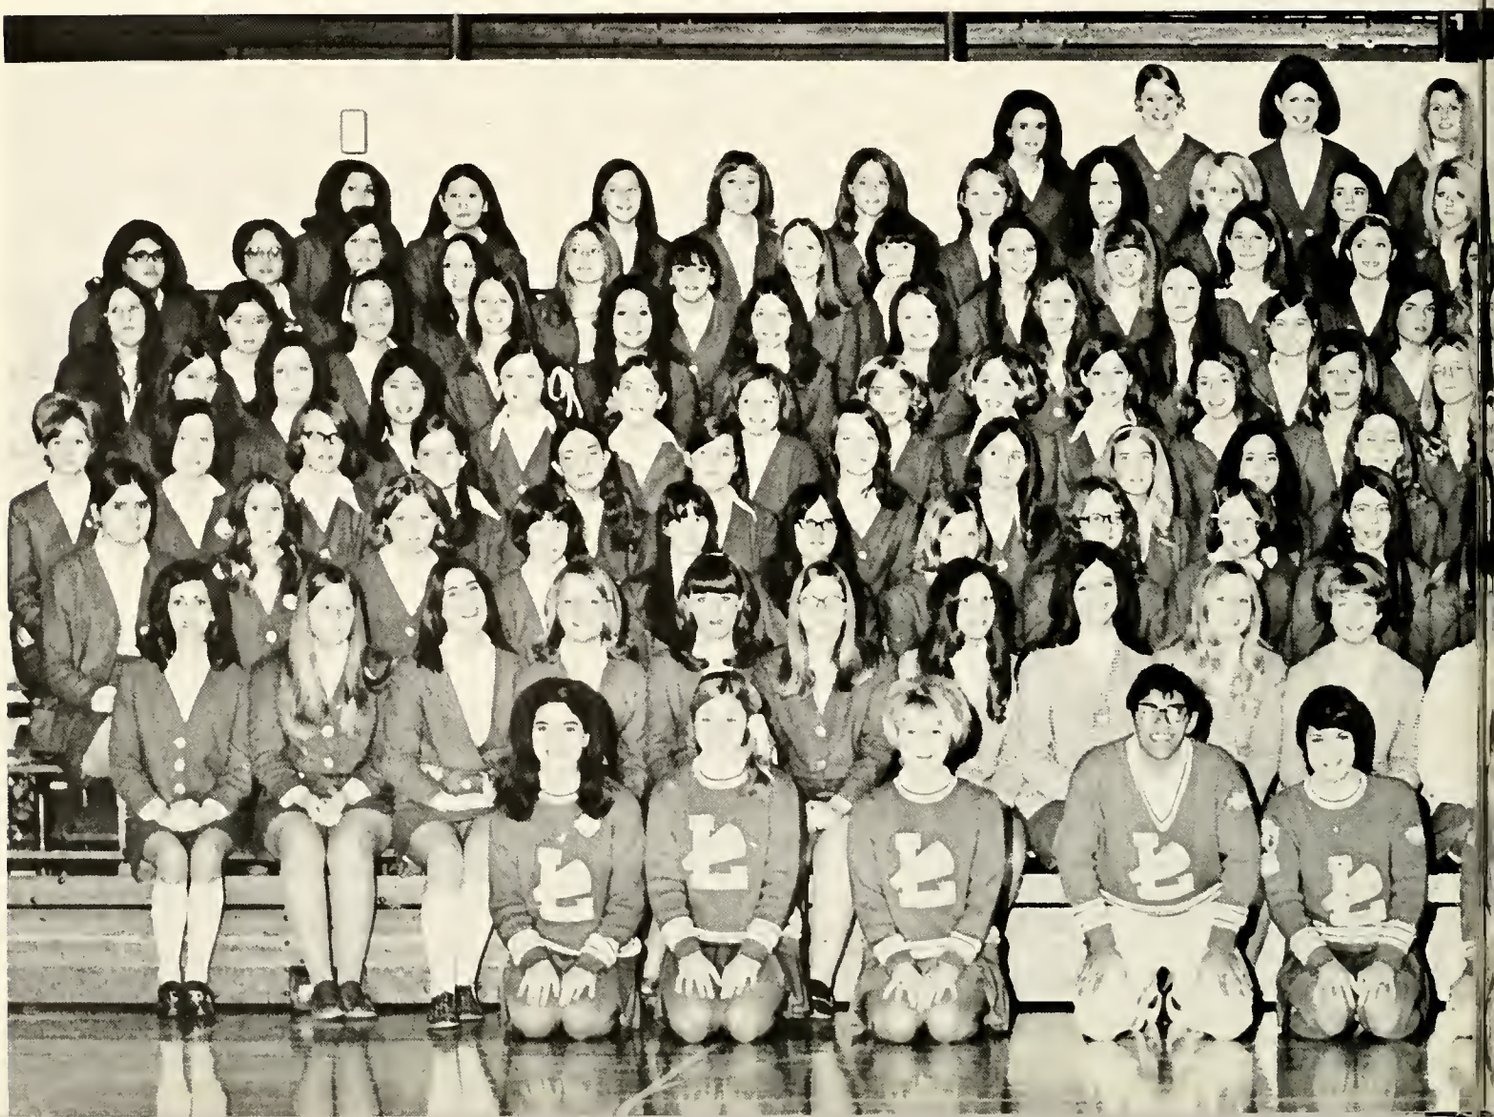
Wolverettes Cheer Teams on to Victory

Leading all the clubs at LHS in membership, Wolverettes boost Wolverine Spirit wherever they go. Members paint and hang spirit signs in the gym, ring their victory bells at games, and wear their red and white uniforms on game days to arouse enthusiasm for upcoming contests.

Several changes have been made in the club's constitution. Members now elect a president. In the past, the head cheerleader has held this office. Three boy cheerleaders have also been added to Wolverettes.

Bus trips are planned each year so members may have an opportunity to attend Lawton High's events held in nearby cities.

Officers and members of Wolverettes work on the Wolverine head to be used at the Ike Game.



Wolverette officer Suzanne Bennett hangs signs in the gym for the Altus Game. Painting signs and paper plates are some of the projects the Wolverettes undertake to promote spirit.

WOLVERINES

SPORTS

It was a frantic and bustling year for Wolverine athletes. Lawton High School battled fiercely to both victory and defeat. As always, the proud Wolverine Spirit could be seen in the SILENCE OF DETERMINATION.

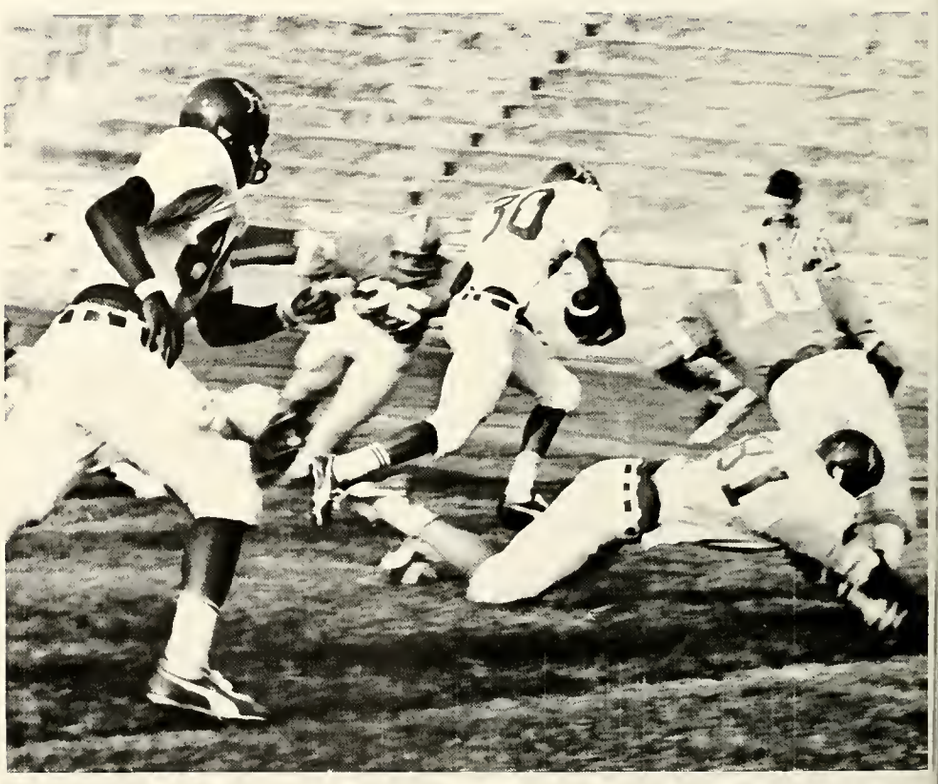
PHIL MILLION

Coach Mike Morgan watches as the players practice their play execution in preparation for their scrimmage against Enid. The Wolverines are favored to capture the Boomer Conference Championship, but, as always, the Norman Tigers promise to be a strong contender.

Football Practice Begins In The Heat Of August

Clad in helmets and shorts, LHS gridders begin practice on August 18. The new Wolverines work out from 7:30 in the morning to 9:30. The Juniors and Seniors practice from 5:30 to 7:30 in the evenings. On August 24 two-a-day practices begin for everyone. Most of the practice time is spent in conditioning the boys in preparation for the scrimmage against Enid.

Tri-captains for the 1970 football season are Roger Williamson, Hank Walbrick, and Euell Pope. Much determination and spirit can be seen at daily practices as the boys get ready for the season opener against Altus on September 11.



RIGHT: In the scrimmage against Enid. Dennis Newton (30) scrambles for yardage as Euell Pope (84) and Randy Bass (81) block. In the pre-season state poll, LHS was ranked No. 3.

Lawton Gets Revenge In Opener

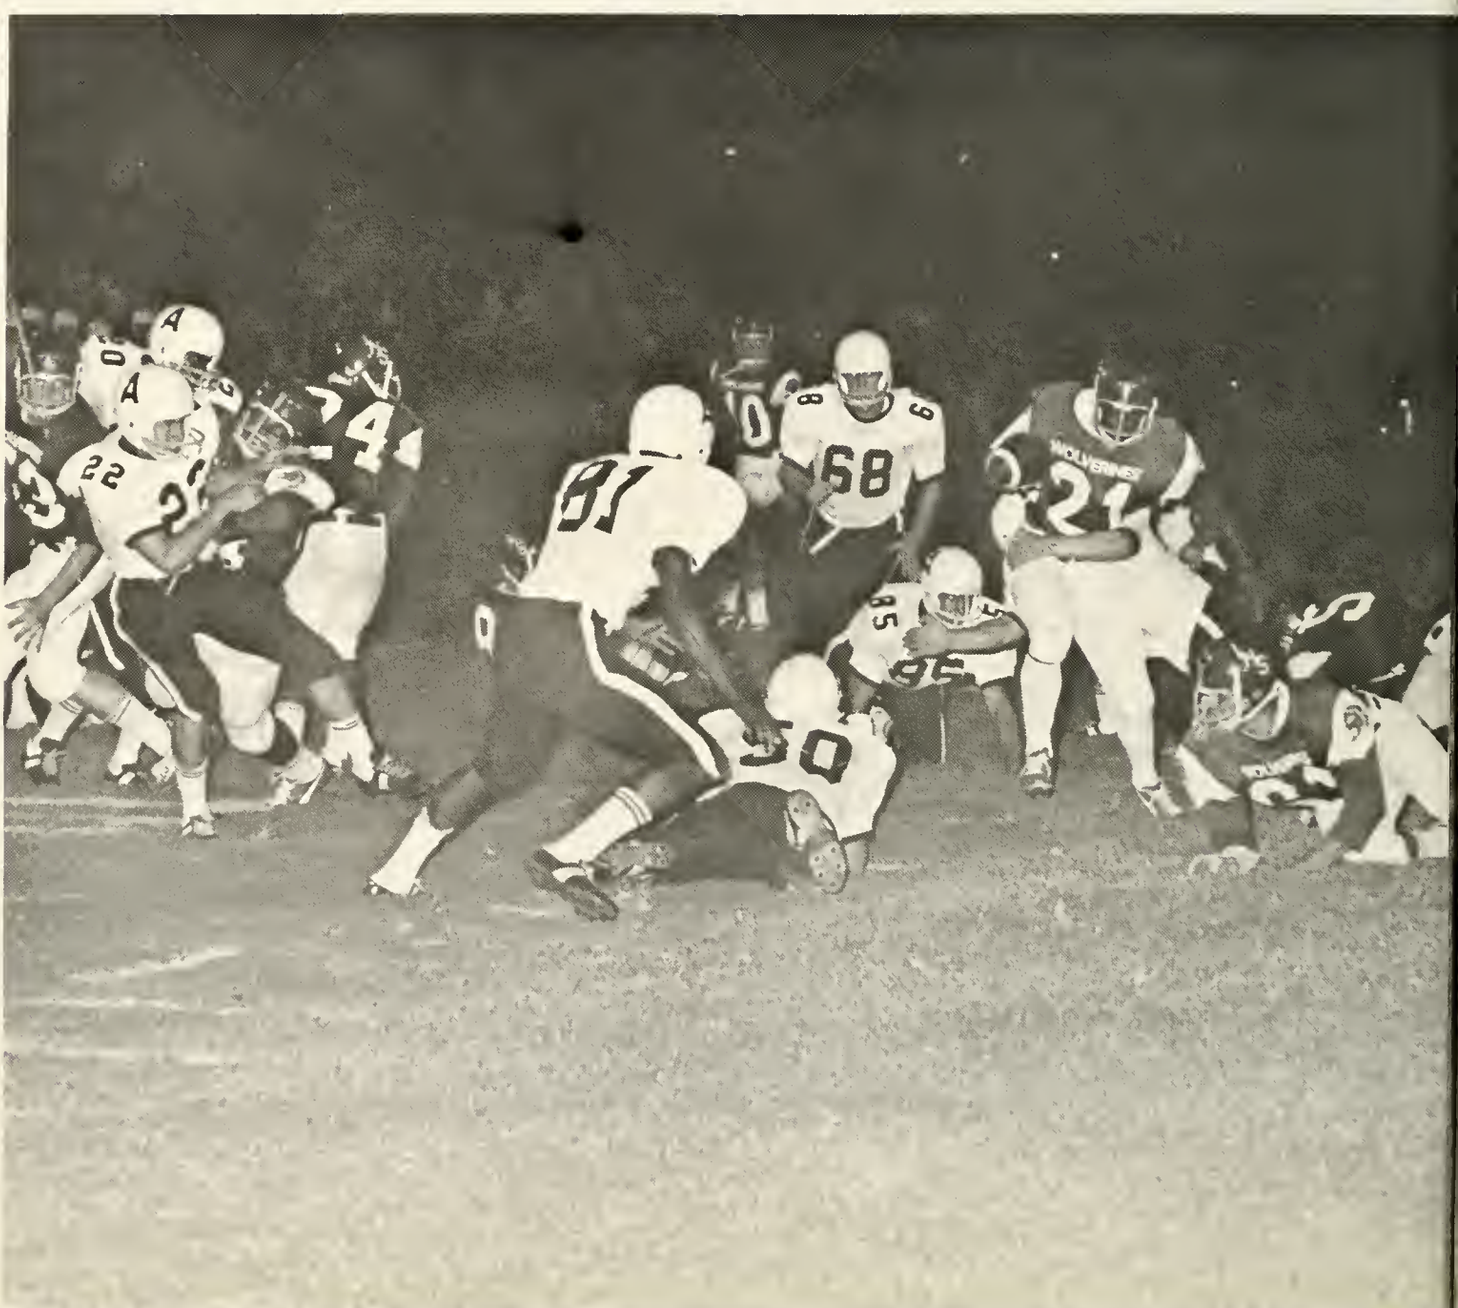
WOLVERINES SMASH ALTUS

A snap from center on a fourth-down Altus punt attempt sailed out of the end zone for an early 2-0 lead. LHS had trouble in the first half and had to rely on its defense to build a 9-0 advantage. Lawton countered the Bulldogs' late challenge by scoring on its last five possessions. Ed Gholson gave a brilliant performance by rushing for 228 yards. The defense shined as Lawton whipped Altus 41-20.

LAWTON DUMPS HIRSCHI

A fired-up offense and defense crushed Hirschi, 24-7, on Wichita Falls' Astroturf field. LHS, held scoreless in the first half, came back to score the first three times they got the ball. The Wolverines' fierce defense, led by Hank Walbrick, shut out the Huskies the entire second half. Lawton tacked on the last 7 points as Ed Gholson scrambled 19 yards into the end zone; Pope kicked the 24th point.

Ed Gholson (21) charges ahead for more yardage against Altus. Buddy Lucero (61) and Jesse Green (24) block as Alan Roundtree (10) looks on.



A Hirschi ball carrier is tackled by Jim Jenkins (43) and Roger Williamson. LHS won, 24-7.

LHS quarterback Alan Roundtree (10) is dumped on a short gain, as Ed Gholson rushes to his aid. Lawton High got revenge from last year's 14-7 loss as they whipped the Altus Bulldogs 41-20.

Wolverine halfback Roger Williamson is caught between two Huskie defenders as Ed Gholson (21) looks on. It was the first time LHS beat a Texas team in Texas in modern Wolverine history.

Wolverines Remain Undefeated

LHS BLANKS MOORE

Lawton High exploded into the Boomer Conference race with a smashing success as they routed Moore, 25-0. Jesse Green sprinted 77 yards on a punt return for the first touchdown. The Wolverines scored once in each quarter. Euell Pope, Wayne Berry, and Herman Stevenson starred as the defense eliminated any hope for Moore.

BIG RED MACHINE ROLLS

The Wolverines' punishing defense showed no mercy with Ardmore. LHS, barely leading at halftime, came back to overhaul the Bengals. Many players performed brilliantly, but the most notable was that of the defensive secondary in which Bill Whitely and Robert Young starred. Lawton High again prevailed, downing Ardmore 27-0.

WOLVERINES JOLT TEXANS

Pampa charged into the game by going 77 yards on the first play, but it was nullified by a motion penalty. LHS scored first on a sensational 55 yard pass to Curtis Gilbert. Herman Stevenson, Bobby Burgess, Bill Whitely, and Wayne Berry performed brilliantly on defense as Lawton High overpowered the Pampa Harvesters 14-9.

DEFENSE INTERCEPTS BEARS

The hard-hitting Wolverines, capitalizing on their opponents' fumbles and interceptions, turned back John Marshall 34-16. The Bears erupted to a 9-0 lead, but Lawton rushed back to score 27 points before halftime. LHS used 6 interceptions and 4 fumble recoveries to keep Marshall from mounting a sustained drive before a homecoming crowd.

LHS Wins Boomer; Advances To State Semi-Finals

LHS TAKES BOOMER LEAD

Unleashing the power of running backs Edward Gholson and Roger Williamson, Lawton stampeded Norman in a crucial Boomer Conference game. LHS overcame a 14-0 deficit to score 17 points before intermission. Only costly fumbles kept LHS from running up the score. The 31-14 thrashing of the Tigers gave the Wolverines undisputed first place in the Boomer Conference race.

BIG RED CRUSHES KNIGHTS

The Wolverines' explosive offense and fierce defense crushed the Knights of Northwest Classen in a chilly non-conference game. LHS scored the first time they got the ball on a 44 yard jaunt by Ed Gholson. Lawton stalled later in the first half, but put on a tremendous show of offensive power in the last two quarters. LHS kept their No. 1 state 4A rating by whipping Northwest 34-3.

GHOLSON SETS RECORD

The Putnam City West Patriots proved to be no match for the powerful Wolverines as LHS scored on its first three offensive possessions. Roger Williamson and Ed Gholson rambled at will through the Patriots' defense. Gholson set a new all-time school record by upping his season rushing total to 1,457 yards. Lawton's Big Red Machine remained undefeated by blistering West, 48-21.

DEFENSE DOWNS DUNCAN

The Duncan Demons fought hard but to no avail, as Lawton's powerful machine gained a playoff berth by trudging past the Demons, 19-14. The elements were against LHS, as the Wolverines had a hard time running and passing on the cold and wet field. Duncan made a last minute threat, but Lawton's defense dug in and eliminated any hope for an upset against the state's No. 1 team.

LHS DEVASTATES IKF

Lawton High proved once again to be City Champs by destroying the Eisenhower Eagles, 48-8. The Ikemen were helpless against the Wolverines' devastating offense and rugged defense. LHS dominated the entire game as the Eagles were never in serious contention. The victory marked the end of a perfect 11-0 season which set LHS for state semifinals in class 4A against Midwest City.

NO. 1 WINS SEMIS

Rampaging Lawton High scored its 1st state semifinals victory in seven years by whipping Midwest City, 29-8. The Wolverines' mighty defense did a tremendous job containing the Bombers as Robert Young, Jesse Green, and Bill Whitely each had timely interceptions. Midwest City coach called LHS' football team "the finest team I've ever seen".

Wolverines "Go Hard", Win State Championship

Owen Field at the University of Oklahoma set the stage for the state 4A finals pitting the Wolverines against Tulsa Memorial. LHS took advantage of an early Charger fumble to score the first touchdown of the game.

As the battle was mostly a defensive one, the statement "when the going gets tough, the tough get going" held true. Bobby Burgess made a key interception which put the game on ice.

The 13-7 win once again proved Lawton High School to be the Home of Champions. With this victory, the Big Red Machine captured the 1970 State Championship.

Success early in the year hinted that LHS produced no ordinary football team. The 1970 team thundered to a 13-0 season and the state 4A championship. The team was considered by many to be the best ever. Fred Vasquez, Andy Shody, Euell Pope, Hank Walbrick, Randy Bass, Ed Gholson, Roger Williamson, Ken Hopkins, and Curtis Gilbert were chosen to the Boomer Dream Team in which Pope was Defensive Lineman of the Year and Gholson was Player of the Year. Gholson and Pope were selected to the All-State team and Gholson also received All-American honors. For the 1970 season, the team was ranked No. 7 in the nation based on a study of game films and statistics. Congratulations to the coaching staff and everyone who helped make this year successful.

Lawton Captures Its First Bi-State Championship

Senior Pat Carlile jumps up to get in a shot after grabbing a rebound in the NW Classen game.

Lawton High opened its season in unabated splendor by edging highly-regarded Enid, 75-73. The battle was a close one throughout the entire game, but LHS finally turned up as the victor on a last second jump shot.

The LHS fieldhouse was the setting for the third annual Bi-State Classic. In the opening round, the Wolverines romped past Marlow, 95-66. Junior guard Johnny Breathwit led the scoring spree with 22 points. The scoring total set a new school scoring record, surpassing the old mark of 92 points which was set last year against Ardmore. The lopsided Wolverine triumph put LHS into the semi-finals against Northwest Classen. LHS made away with its second victory of the tournament by bounding by the Knights, 56-52. In the championship bout, the Wolverines downed Enid for the second time, 76-72. The victory gave Lawton its first Bi-State Classic championship. Johnny Breathwit, Jeff Watkins, and Curtis Gilbert were named to the all-tournament team, in which Breathwit was chosen as the Most Valuable Player.

On December 15, Lawton traveled to Moore to open its race in the Boomer Conference. LHS faced difficulties, but the Wolverines escaped with a narrow 56-51 victory. The win gave LHS an early 1-0 lead in the Boomer race.

A sudden fourth-quarter surge by Putnam City West vaulted the Patriots to a stunning, 89-74 conference victory over Lawton High. The Wolverines led up to the fourth quarter when the Patriots put on a tremendous show of offensive power.

LHS Falls in Tulsa; Tramples Ike

On January 7 the Wolverines entered the Oral Roberts Tournament in Tulsa only to encounter shattering disappointments. In the opening round, LHS fell to Tulsa Hale, 68-52. The cold-shooting Wolverines made too many costly mistakes that ended in disaster. In the consolation bout, LHS could not shrug off its mistakes, and consequently lost to Tulsa Rogers by a 58-53 count. The Tulsans handed the shocked Wolverines their third defeat.

As can only be done in Lawton High's tradition, LHS bounced back to whip the Altus Bulldogs, 67-59. The Bulldogs, still sore from their spanking given by LHS in the football season, took their first defeat of the season.

The Wolverines ambushed Duncan 63-54, and turned in a mighty effort to defeat Clinton.

Lawton High claimed its twelfth victory in thirteen tries over Eisenhower by crushing the Eagles, 71-59, in the annual bedlam series. Johnny Breathwit and Curtis Gilbert, scoring 19 and 18 points, respectively, pressured the Eagles tremendously. Lawton was in command throughout most of the game as, once again, the Eisenhower Eagles settled for backseat against the mightier Wolverines.

Lawton High Upsets Norman; Ranks No. 4 In State

Norman, the defending state champ, was held in high regard throughout the state. The Wolverines had to beat the Tigers in order to stay alive in the Boomer Conference race and they did just that. From start to finish, the game was close and wasn't decided until the last few seconds. LHS tied the Bengals with less than ten seconds left. Then on a fast break, Pat Carlile sank a jump shot to put the Wolverines ahead permanently, 61-59. The following week Lawton was rated as the No. 4 team in the state.

February 2 marked the second confrontation between Altus and LHS. Lawton swept the Bulldogs away, 72-67. The next week Clinton came to battle the Wolverines. Powerful Lawton High devastated the hapless Red Tornadoes, 80-48, in a game that was more of a farce than a contest.

Moore had experienced a disappointing year since going to the state 4A semifinals the year before. The Lions were no match for the Wolverines as Moore fell 73-44.

The Duncan Demons were looking for revenge and had high hopes of upsetting LHS. The Demons turned in a valiant effort, but were completely buried, 74-52.

LEFT: Wolverine Johnny Breathwit (33) jumps to shoot the ball as an Eisenhower player tries to block it. Lawton routed the Eagles, 71-59, for the twelfth time in the intra-city squabble.

Wolverines Revenge Patriots; Advance to Regionals

On February 13 the Wolverines traveled to Enid to battle the Plainsmen for the third time of the year. Enid was eyeing revenge since it had been beaten by the Wolverines in final round of the Bi-State Classic early in December. LHS played one of its better games, but came home with its fourth loss of the season, 64-63.

Putnam City West, which had handed LHS its first loss of the season earlier in the year, was looking forward to beating the Wolverines again. But this time the Patriots were blistered, 72-68, by a mighty LHS effort.

The Wolverines made their bid for the Boomer Conference championship when they battled Norman in the Tigers' den on February 19. Like the earlier meeting, the game was a barnburner. Proud Lawton High fought hard throughout the game, but LHS left the giant Norman gymnasium with another loss. Johnny Breathwit contributed the most points to the Wolverine total. The 57-56 defeat left the Wolverines in second place in the Boomer Conference.

Ill-fortuned Eisenhower completed Lawton's regularly scheduled season. The Wolverines had already defeated Ike once before, but February 23 marked the final time the Eagles could try for a win against mightier LHS. Ike had no more luck than before. The Eagles were overwhelmed by a 84-53 count. The victory was Lawton's thirteenth triumph against cross-town rival Ike since the intra-city squabble began five years ago.

LHS Defeats Altus, Wins 4A Regional Championship

The class 4A Regional Tournament was held in the Wolverine fieldhouse this year. LHS had encountered difficulties last year in the Regionals when the Wolverines were beaten by Ardmore.

Lawton faced Duncan in the first round of action. The Demons jump to an early first quarter lead, but LHS fought its way back to tie the contest at halftime. The Wolverines came out after intermission with both guns blazing. LHS left Duncan for dead with a 25 point surge in the fourth quarter. Curtis Gilbert walked off with game honors of 23 points. Lawton High met Altus in the finals for the tournament title. LHS blasted the Bulldogs, 71-61, to win the 4A Regional Championship.

Baseball Team Returns Nine Lettermen

Under the able direction of Head Coach Mike Sparks and Assistant Coach Byrl Hunt, the 1971 Wolverine baseball team began preparing for the rugged season early in January. The first practices were primarily to condition the players and also to look over the new prospective teammates.

In the past few years, the sport of baseball has brought much honor to Lawton High. The Wolverines have won three state championships when they were under the direction of Coach Orval (Bo) Bowman, who is presently the head football coach at LHS. This was Coach Sparks' second year as head coach.

Players Endeavor To Return Crown To Lawton High

With added depth and experience, the 1971 baseball team had high hopes for a championship season. Top performers returning this year were Randy Rushing, Bobby Burgess, Robert Young, Bert Weryavah, Carl Ryker, Pat Hunt, Randy Bass, Raymond Burgess, and Alvin Bridgewater. Bass, who sported one of the highest batting averages in the Boomer Conference, made All-Conference last season.

The Wolverines opened their schedule with a doubleheader against Midwest City on March 5. They also played several night games against cross-town rival Eisenhower.

Thinclads Reign as Defending Boomer Conference Champs

Since ancient times, track and field competition has been one of the most rugged and grueling sports. The early Greeks and Romans used their physical strength and stamina as a means of existence as well as in sports. Today these skills comprise the sport of track and field.

Head coach Bill Barker and his assistant Mike Morgan work with the boys who were interested in coming out for track. The Wolverines' first meet this year was the Oklahoma City Jaycee Indoor Invitational held January 29.

Endurance and Determination Bind Track Team

Last year Lawton fielded one of best teams in the state. The Wolverines won the Boomer Conference title and also Regionals. At Oklahoma City, the thinclads placed third in the state meet.

Back this year were strongmen Euell Pope, Richard Skelton, Ronnie Wortham, Jeff Watkins, Tommy Poole, and Alfredo Guzman. Coach Barker had high hopes for Pope in the shot put and discus. Much desire and spirit was evident in this year's team as it strived for a repeat of last year's success.

Golf Team Strives for Boomer Conference Title

Intense desire and spirit gave the 1971 golf team high hopes for a Boomer Conference title. Golf has become a game of skill and precision instead of physical strength.

Coach George Miller heads the team with returning players Jim Banta, Chuck Saffa, Richard Blanton, Steve Chambers, Guy Erwin, and Chuck Montgomery. The linksmen faced tough competition against Norman, Moore, Duncan, Putnam City West, and Eisenhower.

The Wolverines opened their spring schedule at the Opossum Kingdom Invitational. Throughout the remainder of the season, the golfers held duals with other teams.

Constantly trying to improve their game, Seniors Jim Banta, Chuck Saffa, and Richard Blanton check their scorecards after daily practice.

Tennis Team Holds 1970 Boomer Title

Tennis is one of the few precision sports. Only through daily practice and hard work can one hope to gain ability to play well.

Practice for the 1971 netters began early in January, as they prepared for their busy spring schedule. The Wolverines' first meet was the Wichita Falls Invitational on February 19. Returning this year was head coach Art Dunham with lettermen Clark Lynn, Steve McIntosh, Johnny Breathwit, Ken Seals, and Terril Baughman.

Enthusiastic Sophomores Discover Being the Underclassmen

Sophomores show much anticipation and vitality as they enter the halls of LHS. Learning of "Wolverine Spirit", they become eager to participate in and contribute to the activities of Lawton High. Each year the class decorates for the Valentine Dance.

Being the underclassmen often involves following the Juniors' and Seniors' commands, but the Sophomores soon learn to take it in stride. This year buttons were sold proclaiming "Let's Face It. We're Sophomores!"

The initial year of high school is an important one, as the students learn to adjust to a new and exciting pace.

Waiting anxiously for parents after school are Sophomores Pearl Johnson, Ann Wade, Sandy Hargraves, Susie Calciolari, and Kathy Poythress.

Juniors Enjoy New Leadership During "In - Between" Year.

The Junior year is an important year at LHS. During this "in-between" year, Juniors still have the Seniors to follow, yet at the same time they must set examples for Sophomores.

Juniors reflect on the past year and look forward to the coming year as Seniors. Juniors now fully realize the true meaning of Wolverine Spirit and unite to display pride in LHS. More individuals are now more willing to serve. With combined efforts, the class proves its unity by decorating for the Sadie Hawkins Dance and providing entertainment at the Junior Assembly.

During an all-school pep rally, spirited members of the Junior class display their arousing enthusiasm by cheering along with cheerleaders.

Seniors Display Leadership Abilities Through Unity

Spirit and unity are important to each student at the Home of Champions. Other emotions such as pride and ambition are aroused in the hearts of students during their Senior year. As leaders of the school, Seniors proudly display the traditions established at LHS and strive to set new examples for underclassmen. The days spent at Lawton High during this important year will long be remembered by the Seniors.

After the victory over Tulsa Memorial which proclaimed the Lawton High School Wolverines as "State Champs," students and spectators scrambled onto the football field to join in the triumphant and glorious celebration.

Dennis Persons and Debbie Unger, officers of Thespian Society, deliver their sales pitch to a nervous sophomore on enrollment day.

JANE BRADFORD

(March 2, 1926 - August 12, 1970)

Faith was an unbeaten force in the life of Jane Bradford. Her confidence in the ability of the students she taught enabled her to follow her quest to eternity.

Jane received in her lifetime many honors for excellent acting but her final performance in the production of Life was dramatic perfection. This role portrayed the bravado with which she concealed the anguish of her approaching separation from those she loved. She followed her quest and dreamed "The Impossible Dream". Embedded in the heart of each Wolverine who knew her lies a fragment of the dream of triumph she cherished for all loyal Wolverines because she was proud of her school.

Her firm handclasp no longer meets our reach
Nor trace of footprints mar life's surf-washed beach.
Expectantly we search life's restless sea
For friendship's touch that's nevermore to be.
Though stormy gales beseiged her final flight,
Her wings, now folded, rest where there's no night.

The Past whispers of
Our deeds gone by;
The Present shouts
Our actions of today;
But the Future
Waits for us
In SILENCE.
